

Russian Duo

Oleg Kruglyakov & Terry Boyarsky

Saturday, December 06, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE!

RUSSIAN DUO SELECTED TO PERFORM IN SHOWCASE AT CHAMBER MUSIC AMERICA'S NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Russian Duo, based in Cleveland, Ohio, will be one of 20 ensembles to showcase at the Chamber Music America National Conference in mid-January in New York City.

Russian Duo is an international project, born out of a love of traditional music and classical elegance. Oleg Kruglyakov is a balalaika virtuoso from Siberia and Terry Boyarsky is an American concert pianist with Russian heritage. Together they have joined forces to create vibrant, magical concerts. Their program combines the diverse flavors of traditional Russian music, lilting voices, chamber music classics and unique transcriptions of favorites from around the world. Since the inception of Russian Duo, in 2007, Oleg and Terry have performed from Canada to Florida, and from Massachusetts to Minnesota. They are with the Ohio Arts Council "Artists on Tour" program and on the roster of Young Audiences of Northeast Ohio. Their first recording was released in 2009.

Chamber Music America's mission is to develop and strengthen an evolving chamber music community. Their vision is that chamber music will become a vital and recognized presence in contemporary American culture. CMA values a passion for chamber music in all of its manifestations, is committed to a diverse membership, embraces performers and audiences at every level of experience, knowledge, and ability. CMA supports chamber music professionals and encourages excellence, collaboration, and chamber music's potential to exemplify democracy, tolerance, and humanity. This year's conference focuses on "innovation, heritage, synergy and change." CMA's 33rd National Conference celebrates the dialogue between chamber music's seasoned professionals and the newest generation--bringing fresh perspectives to our community while sustaining our greatest traditions.

About Russian Duo, Hartford Advocate writes, "explosive talent . . . see these dazzling musicians in action." ". . . the musicality and virtuosity displayed will appeal to a broad spectrum of music lovers." (Cleveland Classical)

###